          These poems were born from rain.
          Not just weather, but a journey. A realization that what I saw as disruption was actually a love letter. What I cursed as inconvenience was actually grace.
          The rain taught me something radical: God's love doesn't ask permission. God's love is REGARDLESS. It doesn't worry about your imperfections, but chooses you anyways and gets you transformed.
          If you're broken by the rain in your life, if you're struggling to see love in the storm, if you're wondering if He's still there — these poems are for you.
